

The sharing operation is finished when the document is saved by the recipient and the document can no longer be accessed via the URL. Additional mechanisms, such as password protection, protect the user and data from misuse. It is also possible to scan a 3D barcode and call the document to be signed.

The sharing operation is finished when the document is saved by the recipient and the document can no longer be accessed via the URL. Additional mechanisms, such as password protection, protect the user and data from misuse. It is also possible to scan a 3D barcode and call the document to be signed.